What is Archohm?

www.archohm.com

Archohm is a design office offering architectural and engineering services for residential, commercial, corporate, industrial, urban and infrastructural setups. It provides consultation for architectural, urban, interiors, landscape design and also renders engineering services for electrical, structural, plumbing and mechanical systems.

At Archohm we believe, that the relation between product, materials and the architectural space is vital to the success of the project; therefore the firm has executed design projects at various levels and scales, from product and furniture design to the urban design, making it a one stop shop- where the focus has always been on 'design'.

What is Zolijns?

Zolijns is a premier furniture and design boutique. Partial to minimalism, it houses top notch furniture, accessories and has an ultra-luxurious palette of designs which are meticulously chosen based on the highest degree of comfort and manufacturing excellence. Zolijns has partnered with international brands and designers who share the same contemporary approach to aesthetics.

What is the Archotour?

The concept of learning through experience is achieved by the annual Archotour, an international design excursion organized by Archohm to explore various design projects of chosen European countries. The winners of this competition get a chance to go on the Archotour4 which is going to England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, and Northern Islands. This is an exercise purely for uplifting the design sensibilities.

What is the Archometer?

<http://www.archohm.com/archometer.html>

The Archometer is a monthly newsletter that reflects the philosophy of the Archohm. It serves as a tool to connect to all the well wishers, clients and other people of the industry nationally and internationally.
